Hodge Receives 20-Year Federal Sentence

Will Suspend 10 Years if Money Is Paid Back

Ex-Auditor Is Brought to Federal Court from Hospital

CHICAGO (AP) — Former State Auditor Orville E. Hodge was sentenced today to 20 years in prison for misapplying $816,427 in state funds deposited in federally insured banks.

Ten years of the sentence would be suspended if Hodge makes good his promise of restitution.

Hodge was brought here from a Springfield hospital to plead guilty before Judge John P. Barnes to the 51 counts in the indictment.

The disgraced auditor, who also is awaiting sentence on state embezzlement charges, looked pale and ill. He sat with his head in his hands for most of the time while his attorney, Arthur Fitzgerald, made the plea. Hodge wiped his forehead frequently with his handkerchief.

Fitzgerald said there was "no question" about the seriousness of the crime. But, he said, Hodge is penitent, and he and his wife plan to liquidate their holdings in an effort to make complete restitution. Hodge was expressionless when he heard the sentence. He made no comment.

Barnes ordered a probation officer to investigate the promise of restitution, and scheduled another hearing Sept. 26 to determine if Hodge had made good his promises up to that time. A second such hearing will be held Nov. 7.

If the probation officer's report is favorable, Barnes said, 10 years of the 20-year sentence will be suspended.

Hodge came here by auto from a hospital in Springfield for the arraignment.

The former free-spending politician, who pleaded guilty to state charges of embezzling $637,000 in a phony state check scandal, is to be sentenced next Monday in Circuit Court on the state charges.

Immediately after sentence was imposed, Hodge and his attorney left by automobile for Springfield.

Hodge has been confined to St. John's Hospital under 24-hour guard since Monday when he was taken into custody by Sangamon County authorities after pleading guilty to state charges. He was released from the county jail seven hours later and admitted to the hospital on the recommendation of a psychiatrist who said Hodge was suffering from a nervous and emotional reaction because of the scandal.

NYC Users to Ask ICC Hearing In Mount Carmel

MOUNT CARMEL, Ill. (AP) — The New York Central Users Defense Committee, which is protesting the removal of two passenger trains between Danville and Harrisburg, planned today to seek an Illinois Commerce Commission hearing in Mount Carmel.

Frank M. Pfeifer, attorney for the committee, said he would meet Thursday with the ICC at Springfield and request a hearing here.

Representatives from 20 towns attended a meeting of the defense committee Tuesday night in Mount Carmel.

Also attending the meeting were representatives of four railroad operating unions, chambers of commerce and six southern Illinois mayors. The mayors were Carl Johnson, Eldorado, Ray Koehler, Grayville, James Layton, Crossville, C. V. Goyert, Robinson, George L. McFarland, Lawrenceville and J. Roy Dee, Mount Carmel.

Lt. Governor Leon Whitney Delivers Inspirational Address to Kiwanis Club

Leon Whitney, of Anna, lieutenant governor of Division 16, Illinois-Eastern Iowa, Kiwanis district, visited the local club last night at the Masonic temple and gave an inspirational report on Kiwanis work as reported at the International convention held recently in San Francisco.

Mr. Whitney also presented a certificate of merit to Ralph Woolard, secretary of the local club, for his performance of duties during 1955.

The international convention, Lt. Gov. Whitney stated, stressed the meaning of Kiwanis and its benefit to mankind.

He stressed southern Illinois area's need for leadership which, he said, must come from clubs such as Kiwanis.

"Helping one's fellow man to improve himself is Kiwanis tradition, especially in southern Illinois," Lt. Gov. Whitney stated.

He was introduced by Fred Wunderlich, lieutenant governor-elect for next year.

Richard Davenport, vice president, was in charge of the club meeting last night in the absence of the president, Ronnie Doerge, who was out of town.

He announced the annual fish fry which will be held next Tuesday evening beginning at 5:30 at Cave-in-Rock state park.

Dean Hill was welcomed back to the club at last night's meeting.

Fire Damages Stable at Lehman Home; Work by Department Praised

The stable at the rear of the D. A. Lehman home on Route 13 west of Harrisburg was damaged extensively by fire this morning, and excellent work by the Harrisburg fire department kept the damage from being worse.

A Tennessee walking horse owned by the Lehmans was removed from the stable when flames, spurred by gasoline and hay, spread through the barn and the horse suffered a number of burns on the back and neck, which were quickly treated.

Neighbors joined in also to remove a truck, a small tractor and a few smaller items.

The fire caught, Dr. Lehman said, after an employee, John Rann, filled a larger tractor with gasoline and started it up. The tractor caught fire and quickly ignited the stable.

Larger items lost included the tractor and a large amount of hay.

The fire department got the call around 9:15 a. m. A resident of Mounds, who was in Dr. Lehman's office when he received the call, went to the fire with the doctor, and he identified himself as a member of the Mounds fire department for the past 17 years.

He praised the local fire department, declaring "they did as fine a job as I ever saw. The department showed organization. Every man seemed to know just what to do."

Fire Chief L. G. Martin was especially well-pleased with an auxiliary pump, which was bought along with the new fire truck. When the new truck arrived at the fire the water from the booster tank was used until the auxiliary pump was taken, in the matter of a minute or two, to a nearby well. The well supplied sufficient water to fight the blaze.

Annual Gallatin County Plowing Contest

Thursday, August 16

Gallatin county's annual plowing contest will be held Thursday, Aug. 16, starting about 10 a. m., it has been announced by Alfred Rister, chairman of the Gallatin County Soil Conservation District.

The plowing matches are sponsored annually by the Soil Conservation District with the Farm Bureau, Home Bureau and farm implement dealers cooperating.

The contest tomorrow will be held on the McCue farm located about four miles southwest of Shawneetown on the Saline Mines road.

At the noon hour winners of the contest will be announced and there will be a program, featuring a talk by Harry Gearhart, Area Conservationist.

Truman Tones Down Attack On Stevenson

Charges Adlai Lacks Fighting Spirit for Campaign

CHICAGO (AP) — Former President Truman attacked Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson again today but toned down a statement made Tuesday that Stevenson could not win if nominated.

Mr. Truman, who had predicted that Stevenson could not win if the nomination, could not defeat President Eisenhower in November, told a news conference today Stevenson "could win all right, but he needs plenty of help."

And the former chief executive said he would be ready to help even though he is supporting Gov. Averell Harriman of New York for the nomination.

The former President said he was "not trying to stop anyone" but vigorously lashed out at the former Illinois governor.

"I think he's always been a conservative," he said. "I am shocked he said that any liberal Democrat would abandon the New Deal or the Fair Deal as out of date."

Lacks Fighting Spirit
He said that Stevenson lacks "the kind of fighting spirit we need to win."

The Democrats, said the former President, need "a dynamic and fighting candidate who will not compromise."

"Stevenson," he added, "is not that kind of candidate."

Mr. Truman opened a news conference with a blast at newspapers which have said that his espousal of Harriman's cause would harm the former President's place in history.

"I am not worried about the personal consequence," Mr. Truman said.

He said his basic purpose in this (Continued on Page Eight)

Western Union Asks Rate Boosts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western Union Telegraph Co. asked the Federal Communications Commission Tuesday for an 8.22 per cent increase in interstate press rates.

The press rate hike, which would become effective Sept. 14, is part of a proposed across-the-board boost in charges that would bring the firm an estimated 10 million dollars more in revenue a year.

General increases in other Western Union services ranging from 10 to 25 per cent would become effective Aug. 26 if approved by the FCC.

Truman's Luck May Be Running Out as Top Party Men Feel a Double Cross

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO (AP) — It looks like Harry S. Truman may be running out of luck, an elder statesman on the way toward being just another member of the Democratic Party.

More than a few Democrats here are fresh out of patience today with the dapper ex-President for whom they whooped and hollered when he reached town just a week ago.

Some top party men feel that Mr. Truman has double crossed them and this Democratic National Convention. They will say so, too, but less often publicly than in private. It had been their understanding that Mr. Truman was coming here as a neutral—the beloved elder statesman—to seek party harmony and winning ticket. They claim he told them that was his plan.

What he actually did was call for the nomination of an Eastern Democrat whose choice would invite a Democratic brawl fit to rank with the angriest in party history.

Said Harriman Best
Mr. Truman proposed the nomination of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York whom he called the Democrat best qualified for the White House. That was last Saturday. He told questioners

Tuesday that he wasn't against anyone, but merely was for Harriman. At the same time he expressed the opinion that Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois could not be elected next November. That's almost a foul in the game of politics.

Stevenson would certainly be nominated today if he had Mr. Truman on his side. It is fair to assume that Mr. Truman would be there, too, if Stevenson had not shunned him after winning the 1952 nomination. Stevenson had his own plans for the 1952 presidential campaign and they did not much include Mr. Truman. Disappointed, hurt and angry, Mr. Truman evidently felt Stevenson had bitten the feeding hand.

Some Delegates Annoyed
So, whatever the other factors may be, Mr. Truman here in 1956 is doing what he did here in 1952—trying to prevent the nomination of a man who offended him. Some of the delegates are recalling these political facts.

Old pros who have been holding high convention office for years or who have been graduated to the easy pasture of delegate-at-large are especially annoyed. They hold that Mr. Truman is willing to jeopardize party harmony to establish himself again as kingmaker or dictator of this convention.

Rev. Stewart W. Radford

Rev. Radford Dies Suddenly While in Florida

The Rev. Stewart W. Radford, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Harrisburg, died suddenly today.

Rev. Radford was vacationing at Daytona Beach, Fla., and felt a pain in his chest while swimming. He died before he could receive medical attention.

Word of his death was dispatched to Vernard E. Clayton here by Dr. Alex Kish, former local young man who is practicing medicine in Florida.

Rev. Radford was serving as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Bellaire, Ohio, at the time of his death, and was a very popular minister and townsman and former president of the Kiwanis club in this city, having many friends here.

He came to Harrisburg as pastor of the First Presbyterian church as a young man in 1941 and was the pastor until 1950 although he was a chaplain in the Marine Corps during World War II and the Rev. Glen Whitlock served in his place during that time. While in the Marines he was stationed on Okinawa.

He left here in 1950 for the Bellaire pastorate.

Rev. Radford was here in April of 1954 to help dedicate the present church building which was restored after being ravaged by fire.

He leaves his wife and two children.

Sen. Morse, Former Republican, Receives Ovation from Democrats

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, who switched to the Democratic Party after the 1952 presidential election, said today he never had it as good when he was a Republican.

Morse stood Tuesday night on the speaker's platform of a national political convention for the first time in his 55 years. He was an honored guest of his newly adopted Democratic Party. It gave him an ovation which he said was a "thrilling, emotional experience."

Later, he said that he had been a Republican most of his life, but the GOP never had accorded him the recognition he received from the Democrats.

Says Reception Moving

"You have to be in my shoes to realize my feelings," he told the United Press. "It was an experience I'll never forget. I think this was a very generous spirit of friendship. It moved me very much."

When Morse was introduced to the convention Tuesday night, he was greeted with a demonstration by the Oregon delegation and several other groups. But his appearance also prompted part of the Georgia delegation to walk out.

Wingate Dykes, a member of the delegation, told a reporter the Georgians disliked Morse's attitude toward civil rights and "we don't have to stay here and listen to this stuff."

Outspoken on Civil Rights

Another delegate who declined use of his name snapped: "He

Windstorms Hit Grayville, Carmi Areas

The Carmi and Grayville areas were hit early yesterday morning by windstorms that struck the Tri-State area and killed a power line foreman near St. Meinrad, Ind.

At Carmi, Mrs. Violet Gunter, 51, Enfield, who was near the north edge of the White County fair grounds, suffered a severe cut on the forehead when struck by a wind-blown limb. Thirteen stitches closed the wound at a Carmi hospital, where it was said she also had a stomach injury.

The winds, which came in three separate blasts, blew down limbs and uprooted numerous trees.

A number of homes and cars were damaged at Grayville, where limbs and trees crashed into them. Extra crews were thrown into action by the General Telephone Co. of Illinois and the Central Illinois Public Service Co.

By the time the storm had subsided it was reported that 75 per cent of the streets in Grayville were blocked by fallen trees and large branches.

Fatally injured near St. Meinrad was Pearl Gibbs, 53, of Rockport, Ind., who died yesterday afternoon of severe burns and the effects of falling 40 feet from an elevated power substation. He struck the concrete base.

He was directing the repair work at the time.

3 Delegations Released by Favorite Sons

Harriman Refuses To Concede Defeat; Ballot Thursday Night

CHICAGO (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson apparently has won the Democratic presidential nomination.

Two big northern delegations, Michigan and New Jersey, were released today by their favorite sons in his favor. They were followed in early afternoon by 26-vote Arkansas.

With his man driving toward an apparently sure first ballot victory, James A. Finnegan, Stevenson campaign manager, said the situation "looks marvelous."

And one of the managers of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, currently running second, said privately that Stevenson "apparently has enough votes" to win.

Harriman headquarters issued a statement denying that they were conceding defeat.

But the breaks all seemed to be going Stevenson's way.

The presidential balloting is scheduled for Thursday night.

Tonight the Democratic National Convention faces an angry debate over civil rights. The resolutions committee today adopted a racial rights plank which it hoped southern delegations would swallow without too much protest.

Georgia Won't Bolt

But Georgia promptly rejected the plank and promised to vote against it. The delegation did not, however, threaten a bolt. Georgia Gov. Marvin Griffin said Georgia never had walked out and never would.

Stevenson's first ballot victory chances rose virtually to the status of a sure thing by mid-day. He cracked two northern favorite son states, first Michigan and then New Jersey.

That was enough to kill the Harriman bid, an aide of the New York governor said. But Harriman himself promised to stay in the fight to the end. Shortly after the United Press reported what his aides were saying, privately, Harriman headquarters issued a statement calling the story "an unmitigated lie."

As of that moment the United Press tally of first ballot votes showed:

Stevenson 612½.
Harriman 232½.

It takes 686½ to nominate. In the South there were a lot of potential Stevenson votes not yet formally committed.

Depend on Favorite Sons

Reliable sources said Harriman's strategy now will depend on how Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and other favorite son candidates handle their delegates. Harriman forces had tried to get some assurances from Ohio.

But Ohio's favorite son, Gov. Frank J. Lausche, said the delegation wasn't announcing any preferences after him. When he releases them, the Ohio delegates can vote any way they please, he said. Lausche wouldn't say when he will do that.

And Johnson emphasized he wasn't out to "stop" anybody. He said he's still a candidate.

Many southern delegations, inclined toward Stevenson, have been hanging onto their votes until the platform issue is settled. If this is done on a basis acceptable to them, Stevenson likely will get many more votes from them.

The Stevenson drive spurred in the small hours when Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan re-

Flame In a Powder Mill

EDITORIAL BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

It would not be wise for any of us to make light of the new peril to peace that has arisen in the Middle East. The situation is serious and it could become worse.

Egyptian President Nasser's recklessness in seizing the Suez Canal has unleashed forces that may not be easy to control.

In so doing he actually thrust into the background the Arab-Israeli conflict which for countless months has been looked upon as the danger spot in that region.

On the one hand, he has inflamed
the Arab states, who fanatically hail Nasser as "hero" and revile
the West with compounded vigor.

On the other, he has stirred bitter reaction and preparations for military action in Britain and France.

These nations have been aroused before when events imperiled their colonial empires. Painfully they have swallowed many defeats and have watched their influence shrink.

But it should be understood that this is not just another twist of the British lion's tail. Nasser has a dagger at the lion's throat. Most of the oil that flows in Britain's economic veins passes through the canal.

It is bad enough that this flow can now be choked off by one man's angry will. Yet the threat is greater. For Nasser has so fanned the fires of anti-Western feeling in the Arab world that a number of these lands are reported ready to seize the very oil properties themselves.

Even Iraq, rated Britain's best Arab friend, is siding with Egypt in the emotional frenzy gripping the Middle East. Iraq supplies a third of Britain's oil.

Should a wave of oil field nation-alization sweep across the region, there is no accounting for what might happen. Clearly Britain, France, and the United States will not stand idly by as if an international football match has been lost.

In this age economics deprived of oil can only shrivel. The nations of Western Europe not only want the Middle East's oil. They want iron-clad assurances that hostile hands will not signal a halt to tanker traffic or turn off the valves.

No legitimate Egyptian aspiration required this wild move by Nasser. From the standpoint of Egypt's and the world's good, it was pointless.

That it was at the same time dangerously inflammatory makes it all the more reprehensible.

Russian representatives have been consulting with Nasser in the mounting crisis. If the Kremlin has a single ounce of responsibility, it will caution him and his Arab confederates against further extremes. Warm support for him in his present course could take the whole world to new dangers.

Red Hot Race for 'Mr. Most Forgotten Man' of Convention

By PETER EDSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO — (NEA) — There's a red hot race on here to see who is going to be "Mr. Forgotten Man" of the 1956 Democratic National Convention.

Selection of party nominees for President and Vice-President are purely coincidental to this other honor.

Ex-President Harry S. Truman has put himself well into the lead for becoming Missouri's most famous ex-favorite son.

He arrived early. That gave him a head start on the unpopularity contest. He moved rapidly into commanding position in this consolation race by coming all-out for New York's Gov. Averell Harriman as presidential nominee.

The big question as the convention opens is who will be around to console Mr. Truman after it's over. The consensus is that those joining him on the mourner's bench will include Judge Sam
Rosenman, Don Dawson, Philo
Nash and other Truman White House aides who had worked with Harriman before and wanted to again.

BC — Meaning Before Chicago
— Mr. Truman was at an absolute peak of popularity. Only the good things about his administration were being remembered.

Truman's gamble was that if he could put Harriman across, his own position as Mr. Democrat would remain secure. If he had even remained neutral his fame would have lasted.

But if Harriman goes down in defeat, Mr. Truman will have had it. His leadership will have been repudiated by his own party in open convention and he will be through, even though Truman left the door cracked to support any other candidate the convention nominates.

By endorsing Harriman, Truman has left Stevenson in the enviable position of having no obligation to pay any attention to anything ex-President Truman may say in the future.

Stevenson is now a free man—liberated forever from having to defend the bad parts of Truman-ism which helped drag him down to defeat in 1952.

On the other hand, if Mr. Stevenson doesn't make the grade, he emerges as forgotten man of the year No. one.

Two chances at the presidential nomination are all a man is entitled to, unless his name is William Jennings Bryan.

A Stevenson-Harriman deadlock with some mysterious third man on a dark horse riding to victory opens up all kinds of opportunities for would-be forgotten men.

With a score of favorite sons in the field, 19 are sure shot bets for retirement to the forgotten men's bench.

Hopefuls like Senators Lyndon Johnson, Hubert Humphrey, Estes Kefauver, Stuart Symington, Warren Magnuson, and young Jack Kennedy will still have paying political jobs if they don't get a place on the national ticket. They can join Sen. John Sparkman, previous VP nominee and the leading forgotten man of 1952.

He'll move over. They'll keep him company.

Governors Williams of Michigan, Timmerman of South Carolina, Clement of Tennessee, Mey-ner of New Jersey and Harriman would also not have to join the ranks of the forgotten unemployed
if they lose out at Chicago.

Oh, yes. And there's that other would-be president, Gov. Happy Chandler of Kentucky. There's a real favorite for being champion forgotten man of 1956.

The Republicans meeting next week in San Francisco aren't nearly as rich as the Democrats in their number of candidates for Mr. Forgotten Man. In the GOP, the choice is either Nixon or Stassen.

Teen Town Notes

By Joan Seright

Hi Gang!

Well I'm back from vacation land. California is certainly tops for fun. It is really cool and nice there which is a little hard to imagine after being home only a week. Vacations are wonderful but "there's no place like home."

I was at the officers club in San Pedro for dinner one evening and Harlan Seets was there. Said he read the column too.

I first want to thank Linda (Brenda Star) Rude for her cute columns she wrote while I was away. I received the Register every day and it was wonderful to know that each week my column would go on even in my absence. Now that I'm home... Linda left. She's off to visit her brother, Jody, who graduated from West Point a few years ago. (He's married) Anyway... Thanks Linda (Brenda)!

Thanks to the following chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bradock and Mr. and Mrs. Don Scott

The entertainment committee is going up town today to get some new records so I guess everyone will be real happy Friday night when their favorite is playing. At least we hope we can get most everyone's favorite.

"As the world advances so does women's work."

Joan

Ridgway Unit Schools Begin Monday, Aug. 27

Students of the North Gallatin County Unit system (Ridgway) will begin the 1956-57 school term Monday, Aug. 27. It has been announced by James O. Austin, superintendent.

Registration, assignments, class schedules, etc., will be completed Aug. 27 and the first full day of school is listed for Tuesday, Aug. 28.

There are two new members of the Ridgway high school faculty and there is still one vacancy to be filled.

Mrs. Veva Nell Ramsey will be the home economics instructor and Mrs. Blanche Cook will teach English. Mrs. Cook has been in the unit, teaching at the Ashbury school which has been closed.

The vacancy is for a science instructor. Mr. Austin revealed he had contacted more than 50 colleges and teacher agencies through out the midwest with no success. Typical comment was "We have no science instructors. Greatest teacher shortage in 30 years."

However, Mr. Austin stated there were teachers on the faculty qualified to teach science subjects and if a full time instructor would not be employed, teacher schedules would be arranged to cover the science field.

Three teachers in the Ridgway schools received their degrees during the summer. Ed Meyer, social studies instructor in the high school, received his master's degree and Sophia Ramsey, first grade and Myrtle Karber, second grade, received their bachelor's degree.

Bob Steinbrook, who taught at Old Shawneetown last year, will be principal of the New Haven school. Lawler and Raymond Hull have and Mrs. Verla Waller, Mary Ellen joined the New Haven faculty. Mr. and Mrs. Gaines Bailey resigned to go to Mt. Carmel and Wina Jean Pyle resigned to accept a school in Carmi. Due to increased enrollment a teacher was added to the staff.

Just imagine! A finest quality 4-transistor Zenith backed by an iron-clad 10-day money-back guarantee of full satisfaction, yet selling for one-fourth the price of many comparable aids. So small, so light it can be hidden behind a man's necktie... worn in a woman's hair! Operates for only about 10¢ a week.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
Written for NEA Service

Little tots like to play with pots and pans on the kitchen floor. They enjoy these utensils more than they do all the "educational toys" which have been produced to develop their skills and their minds.

The imagination of a child can more easily accept a house made out of plastic bricks. A truck or an airplane made out of a soup ladle is more satisfying than a plastic replica of a flying machine.

Some mothers become annoyed by the children playing under their feet. They stumble over the mess on the kitchen floor. They lose patience with the need to wash and rewash the same pots and pans which were already cleaned and prepared for normal use. We wonder why the little ones cannot be satisfied to play with their toys in their own play areas.

There are probably a great number of reasons for children acting the way they do, but we do not give much thought about "why." We overlook the fact of inventiveness and the multiple uses for things. Adults use hairpins for many uses beyond pinning up hair. They use table knives for screw-drivers. They use the heels of shoes for hammers.

As adults, we set the example for the inventiveness and for imaginative endeavor. What is more, we like to be where people are. When God created man and gave him the gift of love, He made people want to be with others and to act like others. Children do not want to be "in our way." They want to be with those who love them.

God wants a lot of love in the world or He would not have created us the way we are.

4-H News

The Grovettes 4-H club met recently at the home of the leader, Mrs. Beulah Reynolds.

Present were Patty Devine, Jeanette Alecci, Lois Reynolds and Patsy Johnson, and one guest, Sandra Muncie.

Recreation was conducted by Jeanette Alecci and won by Patty Devine.

Roll call was answered by the National 4-H club creed.

Seventy-five per cent of all freight in the United States is moved all or part of its journey by trucks.

Hall Charges Distortions in Clement Speech

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall charged Tuesday that Democratic keynote Gov. Frank G. Clement's speech was "filled with half-truths, distortions and some outright mis-statements and falsehoods."

Hall told a news conference that Clement's attack "indicates we're going to have a rough campaign" but "we'll meet it."

He predicted that "we'll have more of these demagogic appeals" from the Democrats but "I don't think the people will be fooled."

Hall renewed his prediction that Vice President Richard M. Nixon will again be President Eisenhower's running mate.

As for Clement's attacks on Nixon, Hall said "it indicates that Mr. Nixon hurts and when someone is hurt he squeals."

He said he did not think the attack would "deter Nixon one bit in carrying on a vigorous campaign."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon declined to comment today on the Democratic convention keynote's assertion that he is a "hatchet man" for the Republican administration.

But Nixon hinted he might reply to Tennessee Gov. Frank Clement's charge at the GOP convention next week.

"This is their (the Democrats) week to talk," Nixon told newsmen. "Next week we'll have our chance."

Dynamite Blast Kills Stunt Man

WATERLOO, Iowa (U.P.) — A dynamite blast killed Al Bacon, a stunt man billed as "Captain Dynamite," during his act near here Tuesday night.

Bacon, Jacksonville, Fla., was a star of the "Transworld Auto Daredevils" performing at Tunis Speedway.

In his act Bacon placed himself inside a wooden box to which seven sticks of dynamite were attached. Usually the charge, when triggered by a fire device from inside the box by Bacon, disintegrated the box and the performer stood up unharmed.

The explosion, however, apparently was too powerful Tuesday night and Bacon suffered head and internal injuries. He died enroute to a hospital.

Rayburn Raps Eisenhower and GOP Policies

CHICAGO (U.P.) — Speaker Sam Rayburn set up the target Tuesday night for this fall's Democratic campaigners and put President Eisenhower squarely in its center.

The 74-year-old political veteran took over as permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention for the third consecutive time and immediately launched an all-out attack on policies of the Republican administration — and the man who heads it.

"...I believe in putting the blame where it really lies," Rayburn said in blasting the Eisenhower administration. "...on the shoulders of the President of the United States."

The stern but beloved "Mr. Sam" of Capitol Hill lost no time in stilling the ovation set off for him when he strode to the rostrum.

"All right, that's enough," he said authoritatively to placard-waving, parading delegates, including some of his fellow Texans.

Then he got down to the business of smiting Republicans, including Mr. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Rayburn demanded that Mr. Eisenhower be held accountable for his administration.

The speaker's prepared text was even stronger. It wasn't spoken from the rostrum, but Rayburn had written down: "The American people are entitled to a real leader in the White House. The American people want a man who is president in fact as well as in name."

Instead, Rayburn ad libbed: "The more Republicans I serve under, the prouder I am to be a Democrat." And the hall full of Democrats roared approval.

As for Nixon Rayburn noted that Republicans are claiming the Democrats cannot beat their candidate. "But we can beat their two candidates," he declared.

Truman Tones Down Attack on Stevenson

Democratic nominating convention was to put across "a fighting candidate" who was not hobbled by "reservations or evasions."

Afraid of Moderates

He said he feared that Stevenson followed "the counsel of hesitation" which would lead the Democratic Party into the hands of moderates.

"I am shocked that any liberal Democrat would abandon the New Deal or the Fair Deal as out of date," he said.

The former President, making an energetic last ditch effort to stop Stevenson, said he thought the former Illinois governor might represent the "destruction of social philosophy" if he won the nomination here.

Mr. Truman said he had nothing personal against Stevenson; as a matter of fact, he liked him. This brought a big laugh from the reporters.

Mr. Truman also criticized Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the late President, who recommended to the convention in a speech that they forget the New Deal or the Fair Deal and look to the future.

The former President said "Mrs. Roosevelt is entirely misinformed" in suggesting that Mr. Truman was trying to create a deadlock and boost the candidacy of darkhorse Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri.

He confirmed, however, that he had asked Symington to come to the convention earlier than planned.

Asked whether he would suggest Symington for the vice presidential nomination, Mr. Truman said that he was "not nominating" a vice president.

The former President charged that "moderation was a surrender of the basic principles of the New Deal."

The former chief executive said under questioning that he thought that however opposed he is to Stevenson's nomination, the Democrats still could win in November.

"The chances for a Democratic victory in November are terrifically wonderful," he said.

Kefauver and Humphrey Top VP Candidates

CHICAGO (U.P.) — Sens. Estes Kefauver (Tenn.) and Hubert Humphrey (Minn.) held the spotlight today in maneuvering for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

Humphrey was reported to have solicited support from Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, a presidential dark horse who also has been mentioned as a vice presidential possibility.

After meeting with Johnson Tuesday, Humphrey told newsmen, "I have never felt better than I feel now." But there was no confirmation that Johnson had given Humphrey's candidacy his approval.

Kefauver touched off a vice presidential boom for himself by telling a cheering group of his supporters that he would accept second place on the ticket if it were offered.

Despite these developments, Adlai E. Stevenson and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, the two leading presidential contenders, steadfastly refrained from giving any of the various vice presidential possibilities a nod.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (Mass.) said that if he gets the vice presidential nomination with California's support, California could take the credit.

Other vice presidential possibilities who appeared were Sens. Albert Gore (Tenn.) and Henry Jackson (Wash.), but they disclaimed personal ambitions for the nomination.

War II Ace Dies In Auto Crash

LONDON (U.P.) — Col. David Schilling, one of the greatest American fighter pilots of World War II, was killed Tuesday night in an automobile crash.

The 37-year old Kansan, inspector general of the Strategic Air Command's seventh air division at Ruislip, hit a bridge near Mildenhall, Suffolk.

Schilling flew 132 combat missions over Europe during the war and shot down 23 German planes and destroyed 10 others on the ground.

Rhee Begins Third Term as South Korean President

SEOUL (U.P.) — Aged Syngman Rhee began his third four-year term as President today with the assertion that a divided Korea would remain a threat to world peace.

Rhee, now 81, is the only president the young Republic of Korea has ever had. He was inaugurated for the third time on the steps of the war-gutted capital.

"I want to tell you, my dear people," he said in an address, "that although the Communists believe the whole world is falling into their trap disguised as co-existence, I have faith that their evil purposes will be realized in time to save humanity from total enslavement."

Stevenson Near First Ballot Victory

leased his 44-vote state delegation with a proposal that other wait-and-see delegations follow suit. A caucus poll indicated Stevenson will get at least 32 1-2 of Michigan's votes on the first ballot.

Then before mid-day Gov. Robert B. Meyner announced that New Jersey will cast all of its 36 votes for Stevenson on ballot No. 1 Thursday night.

Harriman's bid collapsed. His campaign managers admitted privately that Stevenson "apparently has enough votes" to win the nomination. Harriman, however, continued to go through the motions of trying to line up more delegates.

The proposed civil rights plank, which will go to the convention along with the rest of the 1956 campaign platform tonight, was a compromise laboriously designed to foster party harmony.

The proposed plank would affirm authority of the Supreme Court but reject use of force to carry out its order that white and Negro children be educated together in public schools. It also would pledge the party to work for education of all American children "without discrimination" as to race.

Key Southerners described the plank as not necessarily satisfactory to them but "acceptable."

Will Not Run for Governor: Sachs

CHICAGO (U.P.) — Morris B. Sachs, clothing merchant and reform city treasurer, announced today that he will not run as an independent candidate for governor in the November election.

"There are too many good people on the Democratic ticket and if I run this time I would hurt these good people," Sachs said.

Sachs had threatened to bolt the Democratic Party to enter the gubernatorial race against incumbent Republican Gov. William G. Stratton and Cook County Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen, the Democratic candidate.

Speculation that he would throw his hat in the ring was heightened by the Orville E. Hodge embezzlement scandal in Stratton's administration, and a current investigation into an employees' welfare fund in Paschen's county office.

But Sachs said at a news conference today that "I have been a Democrat all my life and I will continue to be a Democrat."

Daley Calls Caucus Illinois Delegation Thursday Morning

CHICAGO (U.P.) — Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago today called a caucus of the Illinois delegation to the Democratic National Convention, at the Saddle and Sirlin Club, at 9 a. m. Thursday.

As the delegation prepared for its first caucus after two days of informal meetings among various groups within it, members were reported overwhelmingly in favor of Adlai Stevenson's candidacy, but not unanimous.

One source gave the present lineup as 52 for Stevenson, 3 for Harriman and 9 for Symington. Former Sen. Scott Lucas was among those working amid other delegations seeking to line up support for Symington, but at present there seemed little likelihood he would make any progress within the Illinois group.

"There's not much chance of winning them over at the present time," said one highly placed member of the pro-Stevenson aggregation. "But when they see how the bandwagon is rolling, maybe they will be willing to climb on." He listed among those slow to join with the Stevenson movement John Stelle, one time lieutenant governor and a southern Illinois political standout.

Dulles Emphasizes Peaceful Solution Must Be Found

LONDON (U.P.) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today he had flown to London to get a "peaceful solution to the free, secure and unhampered use" of the Suez Canal.

Dulles' emphasis on a "peaceful solution" appeared aimed at Asian and Middle Eastern nations which have expressed alarm that Britain and France might use force if Thursday's conference of 22 nations fails to solve the Suez Canal crisis.

Dulles and the American delegation arrived today abroad a U.S. air force plane.

Dulles expressed hope the conference would work out "a solution to this problem so vital to the peace and well-being of all the world."

Dulles conferred almost immediately with Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden, Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau.

Their aim was to line up a Western Big Three solid front for the formal sessions opening Thursday, at which Eden will make a brief formal speech of welcome and then withdraw. The Western statesmen must patch up any disagreements on the Suez issue and present a joint plan for internationalizing the canal.

Dulles' emphasis on a peaceful solution came as Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru warned in New Delhi that the use of military force could lead to a "general conflagration."

More than 1,000 miles of the Congo river's total length of 2,900 miles is navigable.

Governor Loses
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Illinois Governor William G. Stratton lost to a carnival weight-guesser at the state fair Tuesday. After looking at the state fair Tuesday, carefully, the guesser said, "169 pounds." Then Stratton stepped on the scale, which stopped at exactly 169 pounds. "You don't win nothing, governor," said the proud man.

19 Heats Run In State Fair Colt Stakes

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Fairgoers got their money's worth at the famed Illinois State Fair Colt Stakes Tuesday.
Some 19 heats and more than six hours were required to finish the $226,500 racing card, which had been held over from Monday because of a muddy track.
The lights were on and the band playing "Three O'clock in the Morning" when the last heat was decided.
Sunny Byrd, owned by H. R. Warren & Sons and driven by Edgar Leonard was victor of the 2-year-old race and its $16,390 purse.
Coburn Frost, of Castleton Farms, Lexington, Ky., driven by Wayne Smart collected the $52,862 for the 3-year-old pace.
Sumac's Lad, Su Mac Stables, Macomb, driven by owner Joe Peat was victor of the 2-year-old trot. The purse was $57,587.
An Ka Da, Ward Brothers, Normal, driven by Edgar Leonard, took the 3-year-old trot for $52,862.
Seven heats were required to decide the 2-year-old pace. Thirty-six horses were placed in three divisions of 12 each and the heat winners came back for a seventh brush.
Two divisions and two heats each were raced in the 2-year-old trot with a different winner for each mile. Sumac's Lad came out on top of the race-off; Avea Maria of the P.O.F. Stable of Meadowlands, Md., second.
The single field of 16 horses for the 3-year-old trot also required a race-off. An Ka Da won the first heat handily, but finished 15th behind Scotch Treat on the second. Darkness had fallen and the lights were on when An Ka Da came home first in the third heat for the money.

General Manager Dewey Soriano announced the firing, saying "the team just wasn't winning. We felt a change in leadership was necessary."
Soriano said Coach Bill Brenner would run the club the rest of the season.

Pirates, Jackson's, Pickford's Win Games in Kiwanis League

By David Nelson
The Pirates blasted the Reds, 20-7; Jackson's pounded Gibbons, 19-8, and Pickford's slaughtered Social Brethren, 19-6, in Kiwanis play Tuesday.
J. Gibbs pitched a four-hitter and he and his brother, V. Gibbs, hit home runs to lead the Pirates to a 20-7 win over the Reds. For the winners on the offense J. Gibbs homered, tripled and singled. Summers singled three times. Morgan picked two one-baggers and V. Gibbs and M. Howton hit safely once. At the plate for the Reds Vinson singled twice, McSparrin homered and Bowen doubled. Hansen was the losing pitcher.
Craver and Gulley hurled a seven-hitter as Jackson's won from Gibbons, 19-8. Gibbons led, 7-3, going into the last half of the third inning, but in that frame Jackson's blew the game wide open with 10 runs and coasted to victory. For the winners at bat Craver had three singles, Kihl-mire tripled and singled, Johnson and C. Wollesen had two hits each, Gulley and Hegghe homered and D. Wollesen tripled. Vek led the losers at bat with two hits and Beal was the losing pitcher.

Ted Williams Tolerates Taunts
NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Williams, making his first appearance at Yankee Stadium since his $5,000 fine, tolerated the good-natured taunts of Yankee fans in the left-field stands Tuesday night in stony silence.
The tempestuous Red Sox kept his eyes riveted on the infield as the fans kept up their ribbing. He neither scowled nor smiled when some fans produced a big sign reading "Come on Ted, you're our boy."
He was closely observed by five Boston sportswriters who "covered" the game from the left-field stands instead of their usual vantage point in the press box.
